Latest From the Battle Field.

THE FIGHT CLOSED.

The following despatch was received by Gov. Pickens, last night from an official source:

RICHMOND, July 5.

I am from the field to-night, and regard this serious battle as about closed, resulting in a complete though dearly bought victory to our arms. It is thought that nothing more remains than to secure the property and prisoners. The Federals are continuing their retreat, and are now thirty miles from their first position of the 26th June. Longstreet and Hill are in their wake.—South Carolinian.

From the West

MOBILE, July 5.

A special despatch to the Tribune, dated Jackson, 5th, says the Memphis Argus and Avalanche have both been suppressed—the former for asking grants of permission to publish the Southern account of McClellan's defeat at Richmond, the latter for alleged incendiary sentiments published in their paper.

The Confederate pickets are now within four miles of Memphis, and warm work is expected soon. Look out for startling events. Seventeen more of the enemy's pickets were found dead last Wednesday morning.

Northern papers of the 30th are perfectly silent on McClellan's "On to Richmond." The Young Napoleon's defeat is not mentioned in any of the Yankee papers.

A despatch from Cairo states that two companies of Illinois cavalry, whilst going up the river from Memphis, mutinied and took possession of the steamboat. The cause is not assigned. They were arrested on their arrival at Cairo.

MOBILE, July 5.

A special despatch to the Advertiser dated Knoxville, 4th, says that Buell's forces estimated at 30,000 strong, have all crossed the Tennessee. It is supposed they may make a feint movement on Chattanooga, to cover movements by North Alabama on Rome.

A foraging party of the enemy are reported as having reached Wells' Valley, about Shell Mound.

The Federal forces under Gen. Morgan still hold Cumberland Gap.

A sharp cavalry skirmish occurred at Clinch's Valley on Wednesday last. Several of the enemy are reported killed. Our loss was two wounded.

Attention!

BEAT NO. 2.

Pursuant to orders, from Regimental Headquarters, you are hereby commanded to appear at the Court House on Tuesday, the 8th inst., at 10 o'clock, A. M., for the purpose of enrolling conscripts.

Strangers residing in this Beat are notified to attend and enroll themselves.

By order,

To Voters of Mecklenburg:

Some weeks ago my friends announced me as a Candidate for the Legislature, but not feeling that it was convenient for me to enter the contest, I last week published a card declining. On reflection, and at the solicitation of numerous friends, I have concluded to become a Candidate, and therefore announce myself as a Candidate for a seat in the House of Commons of the next General Assembly of North Carolina. In order that my position may be understood, I will state that I am for Col. Wm. Johnston for Governor, and in favor of prosecuting the war until our independance is established. If my fellow-citizens of Mecklenburg see proper to elect me I will serve them to the best of my ability.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.
THE NEWBERN

Daily and Weekly Progress,

IT IS ALREADY KNOWN TO THE PUBLIC that the unceremonious entrance of Burnside into Newbern on Friday last has compelled the temporary suspension of the PROGRESS. This was a barbarous and villanous proceeding of old Burnside, inasmuch as it has deprived the public of the advantages of a good paper, besides the inconvenience to the citizens of Newbern.

By the discomfiture of our arms at Newbern, I have lost everything I had in the world—presses, type, and stock and other office material and furniture and other property of all kinds, is all gone—but still I hope to be able to make arrangements at an early day to issue the PROGRESS at some point not very remote from the circle to which Burnside is able to penetrate the bowels of the land.

Having lost all I have, I must urge all who are indebted to the PROGRESS office to make immediate settlement. Though in the army my address will be for the present, Goldsboro, N. C.

☞ Papers in the State interesting enough to receive the PROGRESS in exchange will please copy or notice this card.

KOOPMAN'S
Anti-Dysenteric & Anti-Dyspeptic
BITTERS.
PREPARED BY E. KOOPMAN.
CHARLOTTE, N. C.

THESE unrivalled Bitters possess peculiar curative properties in all affections of the Bowels. They will be found effectual in the cure of Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, and all those painful and troublesome diseases arising from a derangement of the digestive organs and irregular action of the functions of the stomach and intestines. They will also be found a SAFE REMEDY FOR CHILLS AND FEVERS.

These Bitters are prepared from Roots brought from Germany, and for over a century have been found effectual in that country for the permanent cure of the diseases enumerated above. They contain no deleterious drug, but are compounded entirely from roots, and are positively safe in all cases.

A simple trial is all that is asked, as a cure will naturally follow, and that is the best certificate of their superiority over every other remedy for the same purposes.

They are manufactured by E. Koopman, Charlotte, N. C., and for sale by KOOPMAN & PHELPS.

Also, for sale at F. Scarr's and E. Nye Hutchison & Co's Drug Stores. feb 25-tf

PROSPECTUS
OF THE
STATE JOURNAL.

HAVING become the proprietor of the Democratic Press, I have merged that paper into the STATE JOURNAL, which will be published Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

The STATE JOURNAL will advocate Democratic principles in the broadest sense, and will support and defend Democratic measures and their advocates as they are presented, and as occasion may require. In other essentials it will be my aim to make the paper what its name denotes, a State Journal—eschewing all sectional considerations and working for the entire State and her common interests.

As soon as arrangements can be made, the whole paper shall be re-modeled and printed with new type, on good paper, and in a superior manner.

The Editorial department will be properly attended to in its various branches, and will speak for itself. Neither labor nor expense will be spared in the management of the paper.

The terms of the State Journal will be as follows:

Semi-Weekly, per annum.....$4 00
Weekly.....2 00

These terms will be invited upon invariably in advance. No name will be put upon the list without the money, and all papers will be discontinued at the expiration of the time for which they have been paid, unless the subscription be renewed. I am satisfied, from years of experience, that upon no other footing can any newspaper hope to succeed.

Advertisements of a proper character will be inserted at the following rates:

One square, first insertion.....$1 00
Each subsequent insertion.....50 cents.

A liberal deduction on these rates for yearly advertisers in the Semi-Weekly. In the Weekly edition the full rates will be charged.

THE BULLETIN
AND
THE CATAWBA JOURNAL.

WE are pleased to advertise the friends and patrons of this establishment, that we commence the publication of the second volume of the first named journal, this day, under the most favorable auspices.

The circulation of the above named paper is rapidly increasing, and its influence as an advertising medium is being felt and appreciated by it patrons, having access to almost every neighborhood in the most adjoining counties, as well as the adjoining Districts of South Carolina.

THE CATAWBA JOURNAL,

One of the largest papers now published in the State, mailed for $1.00 per annum, made up from the columns of the DAILY BULLETIN, has not only become a popular paper, but it affords great advantages to those who wish to use its columns as an advertising medium.

Specimen copies will be sent to any section they may be ordered, free of postage.

For terms, &c., we refer the reader to our imprint.

CHARLESTON, March 16, 1861.

THE South Carolina Railroad Company having determined to discontinue this department of the service, the undersigned, who has been the forwarding Agent of the Company for the last four or five years, has associated with him the Chief Clerk in the department, and, under the name of GANTT & STONE, will continue to RECEIVE and FORWARD such articles as may be consigned to his care. He trusts, by strict personal attention, to retain a very liberal share of the business of the department.

Parties are reminded that all goods now reaching this port from points beyond the Confederate States of America, must be sent to the Custom House, and that duties are payable on such as are not purchased on or before the 20th February last, and landed on shipboard on or before the 15th March instant, save such as are on the free list. It is therefore necessary that consignees be ready to pay the duties where duties are payable, as IN ALL CASES TO COVER THE EXPENSE OF CUSTOM HOUSE ENTRY, WHETHER THE GOODS ARE PASSED OR NOT. Prompt compliance will prevent delay and expense, as all articles not entered and permitted will be stored by the Customs House officials. The South Carolina Railroad Company will advance, in Charleston, the charges of freight, drayage, wharfage, &c., on the consignees contracted with the Custom House.

Rates of charges for forwarding will be very moderate, and may be had on application to GANTT & STONE, to whom all business communications should be addressed.

The undersigned refers to the officers of the South Carolina Railroad Company, to the customers of the Forwarding Department, and to all merchants of standing in the city of Charleston, and respectfully solicits a liberal share of patronage.

PROSPECTUS
HILLSBOROUGH RECORDER,

WITH the present volume the RECORDER commenced the fourteenth year of its existence, the first number having been issued the 15th of February, 1849; during all which time we have labored to make our paper interesting and useful, and we hope that in these particulars we have not been altogether unsuccessful. It has been our wish to make the RECORDER a good Family Paper, devoted to Politics, Agriculture, Miscellany, General News, &c., with a view to the entertainment and improvement of the farmers and citizens of the circle in which it is distributed. Our Agricultural department we endeavor to fill with the best selections we can make from all sources, giving preference to such as will be of practical use to the farmer and cultivator; and in this particular we hope to make the RECORDER as valuable to the agriculturist as any periodical of a purely agricultural character. In our Miscellaneous department, we shall continue to be, as we have always been, careful to select such articles as will have a tendency not only to amuse, but to improve the mind and heart. While we shall be thankful to receive well-written articles to adorn our columns, we are not so ambitious of originality as not to prefer selected matter of superior merit, to loosely-written and ill-digested articles, though ornamented at the top with the coveted words—"Written expressly for the RECORDER." In our News department we shall take especial pains to present to our readers the latest intelligence; and to enable us to do so we have facilities equal to those enjoyed in any portion of the State, except those favored with telegraphic communication.

A single copy, one year.....$2 00
Six copies, one year.....10 00
Ten copies, one year.....15 00
Payment always in advance.

Any of our old subscribers who will obtain five subscribers and send us the cash, shall receive their own paper free of charge.

The Edgecombe Farm Journal.

THE subscriber will commence on or about the 1st of September, 1860, the publication of a monthly journal in Tarboro', to be devoted to the plantation and rural interests of North Carolina in particular, and of the South generally.

Edgecombe having long since been acknowledged as the model farming county of North Carolina, we feel that there is no locality better suited, and none more justly entitled, to the honor of publication of a first class agricultural paper than Tarboro'. It is to be called

"The Edgecombe Farm Journal,"

And will contain original and selected articles upon Agriculture, Horticulture, Floriculture, Household Arts, Rural Architecture, Zoology, &c., &c.

It will be published with new type and clear white paper, in a neat quarto form.

The price of subscription has been made so low as to place the publication within reach of every one.

A NORTH CAROLINA PAPER.

THE TIMES;

A large Eight-Page Weekly, published in Greensboro.

$2.00 a year; $1.00 for six months.

THE TIMES contains weekly forty columns of choice matter, specially adapted to the family circle. It is neither sectarian nor political, but by being courteous to all sects and parties, it is the constant aim of the publishers to present in its columns whatever may elevate the people and enrich the State. The publishers would earnestly appeal to the families of North Carolina to give THE TIMES a trial; try it for six months, to see if it is not as well to patronize home papers, as those from abroad; to build up home interests and a State pride, and to scatter our substance and our energies among strangers. Give THE TIMES a trial and then let it stand upon its merits.

WHAT IS SAID OF THE TIMES.

"The Times I regard as the very first of our Southern Literary Weeklies."—Rev. C. F. Deems.

"I know of no Weekly published anywhere, that is so deserving of public patronage as the Times."—Rev. J. E. Edwards.

"There is no pandering to a vitiated taste—every article is of a moral tendency, and calculated both to please and instruct."—Wilmington Herald.

"Among the handsomest weekly papers published in the Union"—spirit of the age.

"Let the people of North Carolina encourage their own newspapers—Raleigh Register.

JOB PRINTING.

The Job Office is thoroughly appointed in all respects for every description of Job work. In connection with it is a Bindery.

The Southern Guardian is devoted to the main issues of the rights, honor and interests of the South, under the Constitution. While it is willing to sustain the Democratic party whenever its course shall command approval by its justice, it yet more confidently and distinctly rules upon the people of the South; and as the best preparation for the contest which is even now upon us, it will zealously labor to effect union and co-operation amongst them.

In the management of this journal, the early production of every class of news from all parts of the world, the lessons of virtue and morality, the interests of education, agriculture, commerce, and manufactures, will be kept prominently in view; and no effort will be spared to make it, in all respects, an acceptable fire-side visitor.

An Eloquent and Patriotic Letter.

We call the attention of our readers to the eloquent and patriotic letter of Senator Benjamin H. Hill to the Atlanta (Ga.) Confederacy. Such a letter is eminently worthy of the exalted character and reputation of its distinguished author. It breathes sentiments which will find an echo in every patriotic heart. After reading it, with what inexpressible loathing and disgust do we turn from the miserable croakers and fault-finders who have been watching every act of the authorities, Confederate and State, not for the purpose of giving a cheerful and cordial acquiescence, and tendering a willing and helping hand to carry forward what is deemed best for the good and safety, but for the purpose of dealing out, for party purposes, hypocritical and factious censure. If Senator Hill had written his letter with an express view to the situation of affairs in North Carolina, it could not have been more apposite than it is.—Raleigh Register.

A PATRIOTIC LETTER FROM SENATOR HILL.

LA GRANGE, GA., June 27.

Messrs. Editors:

I am asked to give my views of the Conscript Act, and the controversy on that subject. I decline. The duty of patriotism now is to encourage our troops, not to dissatisfy them; to keep our people united, and not divide them. State rights and individual rights are to be saved by soldiers—gallant, satisfied soldiers—and not by issue-makers and abstract theorizers. And as for ambition, let me beg its votaries to consider that the times are inopportune for such aspirations now. Look upon this scene of disorganization, blood and death—the legitimate culmination of ambition, mad follies—and be shocked to silence for a season.

At the proper time, if I can see any good likely to result, I will give my views of this law. At present allow me to say it is the duty of everybody—of States and people—to obey it without reluctance and without quibbling. We know the enemy greatly dreaded this law, and hoped it would be resisted; but the soldiers and the people every where (except perhaps in East Tennessee) are nobly responding to its call; and when those affected are satisfied, there is surely nothing in State rights which requires the disturbance of this harmony by those not affected.

It cannot be so important to leave a few young men under 35 to drill privates over that age, as to require our great State, which did so much to inaugurate and is doing so much to defend the new Govern- [illegible] its laws.

[illegible] said this much by way of re- [illegible] and certainly intending to [illegible] no man, I dismiss the subject.

One word on another subject. The administration ought to be supported cheerfully and without misgiving. No good can, but much harm will, come of opposition. Every blow strikes the cause. Mr. Davis is, in many respects, a noble example to all Executive officers. He usurps no authority; he exercises no power without legislative grant; he interferes with no private rights, and fights none but the common enemy. Eve-dropping libellers are unmolested under the windows of his office, and slanderers find freedom in the light of his midnight lamp. He will never be a dictator.

Above all, let us preserve our unity—obey the laws and help, not abuse, each other. With this resolve we are certain of success, and when the struggle is over and we review it with calmness, we shall be astonished, not at so many, but at so few reverses—not that so little, but that so much was done.

When the contest began, the enemy had a great navy; a regular army; an organized government; well filled armories and magazines; a rebundant population—adventures gathered from every clime; immense manufactories; exhaustless resources; a status as a nation, and unrestrained access to all the world. We had no organic government; no army—not a soldier; a small white population, largely unused to exposure and labor; no navy not a war ship; inferior, and but few of them; very limited munitions of war; very few manufactories, and very little raw materials out of the bowels of the earth; and no name, standing or credit among, and no access to the nations of the earth.

Let us be true to our only friend—ourselves. Let us preserve our only strength—our unity. Let us always remember the one great fact, swallowing up every other fact, in this great struggle. Our enemies invade to destroy, insult and enslave. We defend to save, avenge and be free. Thus deserving, we cannot fail.

Yours, very truly,

B. H. HILL.

HARDEEVILLE, S. C., July 4, 1862.

The Savannah Republican, of this morning, contains a letter from Mr. Cevor, the well known æronaut, giving an account of his balloon ascension over the battle field the 27th of June.

Will you allow an old subscriber to state, for the information of all parties, that Mr. Cevor's labors, which have "received the compliments of the Generals" near Richmond, were undertaken under contract with Brigadier General Drayton, commanding 4th Military District, S. C., as long ago as 10th April, 1862, for the purpose of making observations in his District. The balloon was constructed at Savannah by Mr. Cevor, under the supervision of Captain Langdon Cheves, A. D. C., and immediately after its completion was telegraphed for, to be used near Charleston, whence, by special orders from the President, it was taken on to Richmond by Capt. Cheves.

I mention these facts, so that the origin of the first balloon used successfully in the military operations of the Confederate army may be known, and the credit, if any, be given where it is really due.—Savannah News.

During the past few days large numbers of wounded soldiers have passed through this place, who have had their wounds dressed and other wants attended to at the depot, the Mayor with a skillful Surgeon being in attendance on the arrival of the different trains, and our citizens have liberally supplied provisions for their refreshment in passing through.

Buildings have been obtained near the Depot for the Hospital and will be in readiness in a few days for the reception of those who may be compelled to lie over in their passage through Charlotte.

THOS. W. DEWEY,
Town Treasurer.

Yesterday on the steamer "Fanny," bound to Fayetteville, (says the Wilmington Journal of the 3d inst.,) we had the pleasure of meeting Major Sinclar of the Fifth North Carolina Troops. We were sorry to find Major S. suffering under a severe wound from a minie ball which had passed through his thigh, entering in front, striking, but not breaking the bone, and coming out on the other side, nearly opposite. Though severe and painful, the injury is not believed to be dangerous.

After going through the terrible engagements at Williamsburg and the Seven Pines unhurt, Major Sinclar fell on Friday last in the magnificent attack upon the enemy's strong position at Gaines' Mills, not far from the time when Lt. Col. Faison was killed and Col. Iverson wounded. He remembers seeing and speaking to Lt. Col. Faison, Col. Meares of the 2d, Captain Duncan Devane of the 20th, and perhaps one or two others, just as they all passed into the heat of the charge.

OUTRAGES IN LOUISIANA.—A dispatch from Clinton, La., says that the Federals are committing great depredations near Baton Rouge and surrounding country.—They go to the different plantations and inquire for cotton, and if the cotton is burnt, swears that no [illegible] they march him off and destroy everything on the premises; drive off cattle, sheep, hogs, etc., and lay waste the premises. But if he answers that the government had his cotton burnt, and the owner can show a certificate that the government had the cotton burnt, they generally let the thing alone.

A CANDID OPINION.—The London Standard closes a leader on the inevitable, "American Question" in these words:

"The season is against the North; its finances, unless rigorously put to rights, are on the point of giving way; and it has committed itself to legislative acts from which it cannot possibly recede, and which can scarcely fail to make the separation between the North and South perpetual. Its weakness, short-sightedness and exhaustion are also so plainly apparent, that not only the Foreign Ministers at Washington regard the war as over, but New York bankers lock up their strong boxes and decline business until the humiliation and ruin now supposed to be impending are once got over."

A VILLAGE BURNT BY SOLDIERS.—A letter from Piketon to the Cincinnati Times says that a party of Federals recently went into Letcher county, Ky., and killed a few secessionists and captured more. Thence they went to Gladesville, Va., and burned it. The letter says it "had been the headquarters of Humphrey Marshall;" but whether this was or was not the reason for firing the village, said letter fails to state.

A subscriber writing from Taylor's Creek, Liberty county, Ga., says: "Our crops look well. Throughout Liberty, McIntosh, and Tatnall the prospect is good for a double crop of corn and a fair potato crop.

COLORED SPY CAPTURED.—We learn that Captain W. M. Hazzard, of the Georgia Cavalry, while out on a scout a few days since, discovered three negroes. Two of them escaped—the third was captured. He confessed that he had been sent by the Federals to gather information, and was to give a certain signal, when they were to land in force and burn the Railroad bridge on the Altamaha, near Doctortown.

Captain H., by using the pass-word obtained from the negro, visited St. Simons' Island, and went over it. He saw but few white soldiers, and thinks there are at least two hundred runaway negroes on the island. The Yankees have a strong picket on the Northeastern portion of the island, and a gunboat stationed off at a short distance. He also reports a gunboat at the mouth of McCay river. The negro has been brought to this city, and is confined in the Barracks. He belongs to a gentleman in Houston county, and passed through Savannah on his way to the Yankees.

What of the Night.

We are living, remarks the Mobile Advertiser, in the presence of great events. A people who have calmly made up their minds to accept death as the alternative of slavery, and are manifesting the extraordinary of that determination by all that mortal heroism is capable of, are clearly making a grand history for the pages which record human actions. This history casts its shadows before it, and we have a living faith that within a few months, perhaps weeks or even a few days, the grand outline of its palpable result, will loom up and the Confederate States will stand recognized before the world as a free and independent nation—that freedom and independence bravely and singly won by the sword.

The times are too serious and the crisis too solemn for vain boasting. To vaunt the courage and constancy of the noble army that stands a living bulwark of breasts to the consecrated ground Richmond, would be but to paint the lilly or the rose. Poetry and rhetoric are powerless to heighten the conception of, or deepen the gratitude of the Millions living and yet unborn for the self sacrificing devotion of these brave Confederate soldiers. We feel but cannot express our admiration, we thank God, but are unable to utter in words all we owe to their valor and His goodness. Jehovah reigneth: and the people can now see through the shadows and darkness of trial and adversay through which they have been led, the noble features of his chastening hand. National liberty is a tree only to be watered by human blood. It is in the storm of war that the germ is planted, and amid the flash of guns and the clash of arms that is born. Adversity and struggle are the discipline appointed of Providence to harden its wood into maturity and vigor. Confederate independence, now achieved, will be a million fold more valuable than had it been acknowledged a year ago, before this Confederate people had carved out a name for itself upon the fiery scroll of history. We shall enter into the family of nations, with vigor up and victorious sword in hand and take our place at its council boards, the youngest and latest born, but worthy of the companionship and peerage of the scarred and battle-worn powers of the world. That time not far distant, we believe, and if the promise of glorious tidings, now coming over the wires from Virginia is fulfilled to the hope, we may, for the first time since the war began, hold up our heads and say, "we are ready for the celebration of our national baptism. We have won our spurs; let us be knighted on the field."—Savannah News.

Foreign Intervention.

If the Yankee government and its subjects were alarmed at the menacing aspect of affairs in England and France, as represented by the latest steamer's advices, the news from Richmond that they are now daily receiving will not have a very soothing effect. From the accounts of their Journals they were fearfully affected by the foreign intelligence, and had pretty well given themselves up to the belief that intervention was imminent. Now that McClellan's great army has been beaten and disorganized, with a loss in killed, wounded and prisoners exceeding any they have met with, they will contemplate disaster upon their already precarious relations with the two great governments of Europe, whose movements in connection with the existing war, they have been so anxiously watching. Well may they now despair of preventing the long dreaded action of those powers. Seward's lying promises have lost all their efficacy, and he will now have to betake himself to the work of preparing for consequences which he cannot avert. The "rebels have proved more than a match for him. They have reduced him to a state of humiliation which must be gall and worm-wood to his guilty soul, and all Europe will say Amen.

Never were a government and people so thoroughly and universally disgraced as the Yankee. The recent debate in the British Parliament upon Butler's infamous and brutal edict in New Orleans is enough to mantle the cheeks even of outlaws with the blush of shame. It tells the North in tones of thunder that she has shown herself a violator of all the principles and usages of civilized and honorable warfare. It tells her that she has made herself infamous by tolerating the acts and courses of the brute whom she has made the military ruler of New Orleans. What other nation has been thus arraigned and denounced by foreign legislatures? And yet it is but just and right that the Washington Tyranny should be thus held up to the scorn and contempt of the world. Lincoln and Seward have forfeited all claim to public respect anywhere by the inconceivably base course they have pursued towards the South. Henceforward their names will be synonimous with infamy. Europe will now shake off their monsters and deal with them in their true characters.

The information of what has transpired around Richmond in the past eight days when it reaches Liverpool, will create a sensation in England and France such as has not been witnessed for many a year. There has been in those confries a feverish anxiety to learn the issue of the prodigious preparations for the reduction of the Confederate Capital upon which Lincoln based all his hopes of subjugating the South. Europe has been told over and over again that nothing but certain and brilliant success awaited the army of McClellan—that the fate of Richmond was sealed, what would be the amazement of Louis Napoleon and Palmerston, if they could now behold with their own eyes, the condition of that leader and his army as it now is! Instead of being proudly marching through the streets of Richmond under the "stars and stripes," to the music of "Yankee Doodle," they are wandering about like a horde of fugitives through forcests and swamps, seeking to escape the fury of the pursuing rebels, without shelter and without provision—presenting a picture of destitution and misery, such as no leader and army ever exhibited before. Straggelers from it are daily finding their way to our [illegible] tivity, being taken singly and in groups, by our people. Half starved and wearied down by their sufferings. What a transition!

We should like to see the Herald's account of "the Situation," in it this morning's issue.—Petersburg Express.

BATTLE-FIELD PLUNDER.—A two horse wagon load of overcoats, knapsacks, blankets, shoes, &c, were captured on Thursday and yesterday by the Assistant Provost officers of the eastern district and sent to the office of the military commandant. They were seized at the houses of parties near Rocketts. This is right. Notwithstanding the vigilance of the pickets on the lines there are to-day several thousand dollars worth of Yankee property in private hands that rightly belongs to the government.—Richmond Examiner.

HOW YANKEE OFFICERS GO HOME.—The Delta announces the departure from New Orleans of Major George L. Strong and Col. E. F. Jones: To an outsider it all appears well enough, but we are informed that after a severe illness, Major Strong died and was taken home on the steamer Connecticut in his coffin, a victim to excitement and our climate. Col. Jones had been stationed at Fort Jackson, and according to the Delta's own showing, was affable and accomplished officer. Butler sent him down a negro for safe keeping, with the white prisoners then in his charge. Colonel Jones immediately informed General Butler that he did not keep a negro hotel, and resigned his commission.

This may be the way the Yankee editor has of announcing the death of a distinguished officer, and the resignation of another.—Natchez Courier.

RUNNING THE BLOCKADE.—The community was greatly pleased to learn, yesterday, that a large British steamer, the Anna, had successfully run the blockade and was safe in Mobile harbor.

The sequal is not so agreeable—for it is positively disgusting. It seems the Anna ran under cover of the guns of Fort Morgan and there grounded. The Crescent steamer went out to lighten her—took out half of her cargo, when by some strange mischance the Anna drifted seaward and fell into the hands of the enemy, with one half her valuable freight. Where was the fleet of Confederate gunboats belonging to this station? But for the glorious news from Virginia we should be inclined to say something malicious about this awkward case of work.

Since writing the above we learn that the naval authorities were not apprised that there was a steamer in the offing.—Mobile Register, 1st.

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE.

On the 8th day of July, (it being Tuesday at Union Court,) I will sell at public auction, at the Court House door in the Town of Monroe, Union county, N. C., (if not sold privately before,) as Trustee for my brother, James Richards, who has joined the service, all that valuable property lying in the Town of Monroe known as the "Village Hotel;" also the house-hold and kitchen furniture, &c.

This is a very desirable property for any person wishing to keep a Hotel. It is located in the most business part of Town, and in front of the Court House. It has nearly 100 feet front, and runs to the rear 180 feet, on which is located the Hotel and all buildings, together with a good well of water in the yard. In the rear of the first, it has a second lot, on which is located the stables and garden adjoining.

The above can be bought privately before day of sale by applying to me or my brother.

For information apply to Mr. WILLIAM TAYLOR, Charlotte.

Terms made known on day of sale.

WM. RICHARDS.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

TO THE MANUFACTURERS OF THE SOUTHERN CONFEDERACY.

I have a Receipt to make a liquid to mix ½ and ½ with any kind of Oil (except pure Lard,) which is equal to Sperm Oil for Machinery. This liquid can be made at a cost of five dollars per barrel of 30 gallons. It can be made in 20 minutes and be ready for use in 4 hours. This Oil will not cream any gum, but will cut away all gum that has been thrown by the Oil. It is better than Sperm Oil for Machinery of quick motion. It is the very article for Cotton and Paper Mills. Any one that wants the receipt can address me at this place and I will give any information concerning it, price, &c., &c.
